Criminal Record Clarifications: a. In an appeal, retrial and president's decision of penalty mitigation, only the decision handed in such frame shall be shown. Details of previous instances are presented, but the judgments handed by them are not shown. b. In a change of judgment, entered within the frame of revocation of probation order, public service order, change of methods for handling minors, indictment of a defendant who has become competent to stand trial or President's decision pertaining to mitigation of penalty relating to a number of judgments, the judgments handed in the previous instances are also shown. c. In the event of expiration of probation order or public service order, only the violations discussed within the revocation of probation order proceeding will be shown, as well as the penalties handed in lieu of probation or public service. Convictions and penalties in violations not discussed within a revocation of the order are only shown in a previous proceeding. d. Times of expiration of statute of limitations and deletion pursuant to the law are shown beside each conviction or other court decision, calculated to date of the information extract and they may differ if other convictions or court decisions are added. e. The criminal record pertaining to corporations is partial. The record includes information regarding the corporations as of 1/1/2014, except for proceedings pertaining to violations of the Planning and Building Law and environment protection laws, for which the criminal record includes information as of 1/1/2007. f. With respect to the scope of the information, Article 16 of the law states that upon the expiration of the deletion period, the conviction shall be regarded as a deleted conviction and no information pertaining thereto shall be delivered to other than the entities listed in items (b) to (e) of the First Addendum and the Attorney General of Israel.
